Numb. 2088.

The Daily Courant.

Friday, October 29. 1708.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 2.

Naples, October 9.

MEN are working Day and Night in our Arſenal, to prepare a great Number of Bombs, Grenadoes, and other Ammunition, for an Expedition which is yet kept ſecret. It has been propos'd to Cardinal Grimani, to annul the Tax laid on all the Nobility of the Kingdom, and to augment all other Impoſts 2 per Cent: But his Excelleney has rejected this Propoſal, as being more burthenſome to the People than the other. The Duke de Carracioli and Don Pepe Pillomarino challeng'd each other t'other Day, on a private Quarrel; but they were ſiez'd by the Guard of the Palace, and carry'd each of them to his own Houſe, where they are forbidden to ſtir out, on the Penalty of a Fine of 20000 Ducats. The Marquis Garafolo has ſent to acquaint the Viceroy, that he has bought up in Apulia, a very great Quantity of Corn; and that if Veſſels be ſent to fetch it, there need be no Scarcity or Dearneſs of Meal or Bread in this City. The 40 Tartans which ſail'd laſt from hence to fetch Corn from Calabria, touching in their Paſſage at Lipari, were entertain'd very kindly by the Inhabitants of that little Iſland, and with hearty Expreſſions of their Diſpoſition to declare for King Charles on the firſt appearance of a ſufficient Force of the Allies to protect them. Three of thoſe Tartans are come back hither, for fear of being met by two French Men of War who were at Meſſina; and the Maſters of them have reported to Cardinal Grimani how the Inhabitants of Lipari ſtand affected to the Houſe of Auſtria; but the reſt of that Fleet proceeded to divers Ports of Calabria; and the Ships of War of Pepefumo and Monteſarchio will be ſent to meet and convoy them hither. The Prince of Darmſtad, the Prince d'Elboeuf, the Marquis de Vaubonne, and ſeveral other General-Officers, hold themſelves in a Readineſs to go from hence to the Frontier of the Eccleſiaſtical State, in Caſe of a Rupture between the Emperour and the Pope.

Genoa, Oct. 13. The New Levies formerly Order'd by this Republick being almoſt compleat; our Regency have given out Commiſſions for raiſing 20 Companies more of Foot; and propoſe to ask Officers of France to command them. They likewiſe keep Men hard at Work on the new Fortifications of Savona, and are furniſhing that Place with ſufficient Stores of all ſorts. 500 Men are imbarking at Final, to be tranſported to Catalonia. Two French Privateers lately took a Felucca of Naples, having on board among other Effects 1500 Pieces of Eight. Cardinal Morigia died lately at Pavia in the Milaneze.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Nov. 3.

Turin. Oct. 17. Within theſe few Days a further Number of Imperialiſts have come hither from Pignerol, to imbark on the Po for the Ferrareze. 2000 Imperialiſts, and ſome Saxe-Gothans will continue this Winter in our Duke's Territories. The Nobility of this Country are to raiſe and mount a Regiment of Cuiraſſiers of 1000 Horſe for his Royal Highneſs, and are to nominate all the Officers, the Collonel only excepted, whom his Royal Highneſs is to appoint. The 15th General Count Thaun went Poſt from hence for the Ferrareze.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 2.

Venice, Oct. 19. We have Advice from Lombardy, that the Imperialiſts lately ſummon'd Bondeno and Stellata, Garriſon'd by the Pope's Troops, to ſurrender; but the Governour's refus'd. The Imperialiſts have well provided Comacchio with all [illegible] a vigorous Defence, if attack'd. They have oblig'd the Inhabitants of that Place to take an Oath of Fidelity to the Emperour, and thereupon caus'd Te Deum to be ſung. And becauſe the Biſhop refus'd to take that Oath, General Boneval order'd him to depart the Place within 8 Days.

Venice, Oct. 19. We expect here, with great impatience, to hear what the Propoſitions are which the Marquis de Prie is commiſſion'd by the Emperour to make to the Court of Rome: In the mean Time this Republick ſeem to have no other thoughts than to carry themſelves intirely Neutral between the two Parties. The Preparations for War are carried on in the Ferrareze, with all diligence, on both Sides. Laſt Week, the Count de Boneval Governour of Comacchio, march'd out with 200 German Grenadiers of his Garriſon, to diſperſe the Pope's Soldiers who moleſted the Fiſhery in that Neighbourhood: And tho' the latter were much ſuperior in Number, the Imperialiſts made them fly before them. Which done, the ſaid Governour took Poſſeſſion of all the Poſts which command the Meers; and caus'd the Fiſhery, which brings him in great Profit, to be continued.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 27.

Paris, Oct. 27. The 21ſt of this Month M. Agoſtino Cuſani Archbiſhop of Amaſia, Nuncio in ordinary from the Pope, made his publick Entry into this City. The Prince de Lambeſc and M. de Sainctot Introductor of Ambaſſadors, went to fetch him in the King's Coach from the Convent of Picpus, from whence the March was in the following Order. The Introductor's Coach, that of the Prince de Lambeſc, the Nuncio's Livery on Foot, his Gentleman of the Horſe and Pages on Horſeback, his Majeſty's Coach, the Dutcheſs of Burgundy's, Madame's, the Dutcheſs of Orleans's, the Prince and Princeſs of Conde's, the Duke and Dutcheſs of Bourbon's, the Princeſs Dowager of Conti's, the Prince and Princeſs of Conti's, the Duke and Dutcheſs of Maine's, the Count de Touloſe's, and that of the Marquis de Torcy Miniſter and Secretary of State: and at the Diſtance of 40 or 50 Paces the Nuncio's Coaches. Being arriv'd at his Palace, he was complimented on the Part of the King by the Duke de la Tremouille, Firſt Gentleman of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber; on the Part of the Dutcheſs of Burgundy by the Marquis de Villacerf, her chief Steward; on Part of Madame by the Count de Mortagne her Maſter of the Horſe; and on the Part of the Dutcheſs of Orleans by M. le Clerc, her Steward in Ordinary.

The 23d, the Prince de Lambeſc and M. de Sainctot Introductor of Ambaſſadors, went with the King's and the Dutcheſs of Burgundy's Coaches to take up the Nuncio at his Palace, and conducted him to Verſailles, where he had his firſt publick Audience of his Majeſty. In his Paſſage, he found drawn up in the fore-Court of the Palace the Companies of French and Swiſs-Guards under Arms, the Drums beating a March; in the Court the Guards of the Gate and thoſe of the Prevoſt-ſhip of the Palace under Arms, at their uſual Poſts; and on the Stair-Caſe the Hundred Swiſs in their Cloaths of Ceremony, their Halbards in their Hands. He was receiv'd at the Door within the Guard-Hall, by the Marſhal Duke d'Harcour Captain of the Life-Guards, who were under Arms and made a Lane. He was thence conducted to Audiences of the Dutcheſs of Burgundy, the Duke of Britany, Madame, and the Dutcheſs of Orleans: And being afterwards treated by the King's Officers, he was re-conducted hither by M. de Sainctot in the ſame Coaches, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Hague, Nov. 2. Letters from Rome of the 13th of October, giving an Account of the Marſhal de Theſſe's Arrival there, add, that 'twas rumour'd he had brought with him a Commiſſion conſtituting him Viceroy of Naples: In which Kingdom (ſay thoſe Letters) the Pope hopes, by his ſecret Intrigues, ſpeedily to raiſe ſuch Commotions as the Auſtrian Government there ſhall not eaſily be able to quell: And while thoſe Inteſtine Troubles divert the Imperial Arms, the Marſhal de Theſſe is to repair to the Bologneze and Ferrareze, to take upon him the Command in chief of all his Holyneſs's Forces in thoſe Quarters, and make Head againſt the Main Strength of the Imperialiſts and others who are drawn that Way from Piemont &c. But we are here of Opinion, that the Declarations of the two maritime Potentates to the Italian Princes and States, the wintering of the Britiſh Squadron in Port Mahon, the taking of Liſle, and the good Condition in general of the Affairs of the grand Alliance; as well as the Precautions which the Advices from Naples tell us are taken by Cardinal Grimani and the Prince of Darmſtad for the Safety of that Kingdom; will all contribute to rectify the falſe Scheme of Politicks which the Enemies of the common Cauſe have infus'd into the holy Father, and influence him to ſuppreſs his warlike Thoughts, quit his preſent open Engagements with the two Crowns, and accept the Propoſitions which will be offer'd to him by the Emperour's Plenipotentiary the Marquis de Prie.
